BIBLE STUDIES

The Story of Us

“Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”
Luke 11:1

I wonder if this disciple had any idea of the huge world that would be opened up with this simple request. On several occasions the disciples witnessed Jesus slipping away to a quiet place. Perhaps they wondered what he was actually doing, or if this was something they were missing out on? So Jesus teaches them this prayer.

When our kids were little, their teacher wanted them to clean up at the end of the day. So, she taught them a song that encouraged them to clean up. At first they were fully engaged and cleaned up, but after a while they got tired and only cleaned up grudgingly!

Is it possible that sometimes we treat prayer like that? Initially we start off with enthusiasm, wonder, and desire for more. Then, over time we see prayer as a sense of duty and routine. It becomes a chore to be engaged in, rather than a conversation to be cherished.

If that is where you find yourself this Lent, then I would invite you to look again at the words Jesus gave his disciples in the Lord’s Prayer. Read them with fresh eyes and new enthusiasm.

This beautiful prayer is for each of us today!

Brian Bilston, a British Poet

They have no need of our help
So do not tell me
These haggard faces could belong to you or me
Should life have dealt a different hand
We need to see them for who they really are
Chancers and scroungers
Layabouts and loungers
With bombs up their sleeves
Cut-throats and thieves
They are not
Welcome here
We should make them
Go back to where they came from
They cannot
Share our food
Share our homes
Share our countries
Instead let us
Build a wall to keep them out
It is not OK to say
These are people just like us
A place should only belong to those who are born there
Do not be so stupid to think that
The world can be looked at another way.

Footprints in the Sand shutterstock.com • 784657252

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand.

He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it:

"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The Lord replied:

"My son, my precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind

Parents need to know that The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind is based on the true story of William Kamkwamba (Maxwell Simba), a 13-year-old boy living in a small village in Malawi, Africa, who created a device that would restore the land and save his people after flooding ruined their grain fields. Expect sad moments, including some significant deaths. There are also a few violent sequences: Government officials beat a village chieftain, and thieves invade a home, threatening two women. A sprinkling of curse words are heard, including "damn," "hell," "bulls--t." The movie's source material is Kamkwamba's same-named book. Both English and Chewa (subtitled) are spoken in the film, which has clear, strong themes of perseverance, courage, curiosity, and integrity.

All movies are in Netflix...

Lemon Pound Cake

Ingredients

3 c. all-purpose flour, plus more for pan
1 tsp. baking soda
1 1/2 tsp. kosher salt
3 sticks unsalted butter, at room temperature plus more for pan
2 3/4 c. granulated sugar
3 Tbsp (packed) grated lemon zest plus ¼ cup lemon juice
6 large eggs, at room temperature
1 tbsp. vanilla
1 c. sour cream, at room temperature
For icing
1 1/3 c. confectioners' sugar
2 to 3 Tbsp fresh lemon juice
Lemon zest strips, for sprinkling

Instructions

1. Heat oven to 350°F. Very generously butter and flour a large (15-cup) Bundt pan, tapping out excess flour. In a medium bowl, whisk together flour, baking soda, and salt.
2. In large bowl, using an electric mixer, beat butter, granulated sugar, and lemon zest on medium-high until light and fluffy, 3 to 4 minutes. Reduce mixer speed to medium and add eggs one at a time, beating until incorporated before adding the next and scraping down bowl as necessary. Mix in vanilla and lemon juice.
3. Reduce mixer speed to low and add flour mixture in three parts, alternating with sour cream and beating just until incorporated (do not overmix).
4. Spoon large spoonfuls of batter into prepared pan, tapping pan on counter every so often, then smooth top. Bake on middle rack for 35 minutes. Tent with foil, rotate pan and bake until a wooden pick inserted comes out with loose crumbs attached, 20 to 30 minutes more.
5. Let cake cool in pan 5 minutes, then invert onto wire rack set over a rimmed baking sheet or waxed paper and remove pan. Let cool completely.
6. Once cake has cooled, prepare icing. In a small bowl, whisk together confectioners' sugar and 2 tablespoons lemon juice, adding more lemon juice 1 teaspoon at a time to make a thick but pourable icing. Spoon icing in circular motion over top of cake, allowing to drip naturally down sides. Let set for 30 minutes, then sprinkle with lemon zest strips, if desired...
