St. Mary is still giving birth

By Rev. Jim Innes

Why has the young Mary, Mother of Jesus, become so important to people throughout the world? It is not uncommon to find folks kneeling before a statue or picture of Mary and praying through her as an intercessor with God.

Mary's unique place in the hearts of so many is a frequent source of confusion for those looking upon it. One woman wrote of how, when visiting Europe, it seemed that "every church is filled with recognition to Mary." So present was this phenomenon that she felt "annoyed" that Jesus was "misplaced."

Much theology (and Mariology) argues Mary's place in the church's hierarchy of importance. The more straightforward truth is that many find it uplifting to incarnate or bring into some manner of recognizing the presence of Mary in their lives. A good example is the following hymn (section) to Mary. Written by Dublin-born, English Roman Catholic priest and hymn-writer John Wyse (1825-98):

When troubles dark afflict me
In sorrow and in care,
Thy light doth ever guide me
O beauteous Morning Star.
Lo, I'll be ever ready
Thy goodly help to claim,
When wicked men blaspheme thee,
To love and bless thy name.

Our Parish of Long Point Bay Projects

“for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.” Matthew 25:35-36

Hispanic & Migrant Farmworker Outreach

Ministry

The Hispanic & Migrant Farmworker Outreach Ministry in the diocese of Huron is a ministry committed to making our migrant workers visible and supported in our community. Migrant farmworkers are a long way from home and sacrifice family life, support network, and their culture, coming to Canada to work and support their families back home. As Christians we want to welcome, support, include, and make them visible in our Canadian community.

Day care

The aim of St. John's Day Care is to introduce the Anglican faith to families in Long Point Bay Parish by providing Child Care to their children while teaching them about biblical histories using children's books and other materials that can attract children's interests, puzzles, toys, etc. Also, provide Spanish classes, healthy homemade meals and outdoor activities. Build a bridge between the community and the Anglican Church to encourage families with younger children to acquire knowledge of our Anglican Church.

Greenhouse

This project aims to benefit those less fortunate to have access to fresh vegetables. Families living in a low income, immigrants just arriving to Canada, people who have been negatively impacted due to COVID-19 (job loss)

Population growth and less availability of food material have become global concerns. The world population increases exponentially whereas food production has increased only arithmetically, meaning that the availability of food per capita has decreased. To proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom by respond to human need by loving service. God wants our lives to overflow with mercy, love, and compassion the marks of His kingdom. As followers of Jesus, we have a choice: respond to unsettling realities in fear and withdraw, or follow Him in responding to the greatest needs of our day with love and hope.

It is anticipated that funding for these projects will be provided through government grants, support from the diocese of Huron and individual donations. Donations may be made to the Parish of Long Point Bay.

I really hope that you will support these outreach projects that put our faith into action.

“What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill,” and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So, faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.” James 2:14

After we had Raz, the kleptomaniac Lab, we got a second retriever who we called Mandy. She was half Chesapeake (curly coated) and half Labrador Retriever. She was a great dog and had none of the the larcenous characteristics of her predecessor. She was all black and had a curly haired back; all in all quite a nice dog and a good duck retriever. As I mentioned shel as not being a closet looter, However, Mandy had only half of the energy possessed by Raz. She was happy to laze about in her large kennel under our deck and in her own luxurious sleeping quarters (read "dog-house"). Oddly Mandy never came into heat, and so we never had any puppies from her nor did we have to keep her confined twice a year. That is until she was 9 years old!

One night in the spring we came home to find Mandy and the Booths Harbour Lothario, Nipper, a German Shepherd, cavorting about on our front lawn. I never thought much of it since she'd never been in heat other than to wonder how she had got free from her kennel. I checked, and my sweet innocent little girl had been dug out from under the fencing of her kennel by the dastardly local Casanova. What made it particularly humorous was that Nipper, the Romeo previously mentioned, was owned by my good friend, Johnny Johnson.

The weeks passed, and on Father's Day morning of that year, Pat called me down to Mandy's kennel. There I found my Father's Day present; a happy tail wagging mama and 13, count them, 13 newly born puppies. I guess Mandy and Nipper were doing more than cavorting!

At any rate, here we were with 13 puppies and totally unprepared for such an event. We had 13 squirming little rascals, and Mandy only had 8 feeding stations. I called my friend, Wray Barber who raised pigs at that time, and he let me borrow a piglet feeder which was an open topped cylinder based on a round pan with a series of nipples around the bottom from which extra piglets could feed when their number exceeded their mother's nipples. Well other than a colossal mess at feeding time with everybody including us covered in a puppy nourishment formula that the vet provided for us, it all went really well, and we had all 13 make it to eight weeks of age.

Some were just like Labs, some were identical to Shepherds and some were just cute little rascals defying any identifiable characteristics other than size. We managed to get owners for all of them before we ran out of friends and relatives (not always a synonymous term) and breathed a sigh of relief.

That sigh was a big mistake.... More next week...

OUR OUTREACH ON RWANDA #18

By JoAnne Easton

Lines and Tales - from Rwanda

I must tell you about the roads and bridges. I have been to Rwanda at all different times of the year but never in the really rainy season. Although Bonnie and I found ourselves at Alleluia House, one of the original guest houses, we stayed in during a very intense rainfall. It was very loud on the metal roof and we started to get concerned as a river of water started to travel into the living area from under the large double front door. We went looking for someone to let them know but could find no one. We went searching for brooms and rags to try and stop the flow. You know when you teeter between panic and giggles. Panic because we had never experienced this before and felt responsible for the place and giggles because we were venturing in every nook and cranny looking for something to help with this flooding situation plus our quick working together was inspiring and fun. We both had never had to do this before. We mopped and used the rags under the door to stop the flow.

This same force of water plays havoc on the road conditions. Wide, deep and irregular gouges are etched into the roads making a 17-mile drive take three times as long. Sometimes we needed to get out of the vehicle and walk up a hill because of the depth and the number of ruts and it also could have been because of the condition of the vehicle. Once you get off the one main road you can find any type of bridge. Many times, there are tree trunks placed side by side with the bottom on one side and the top of the trunk on the other. Sometimes a tree trunk or two can be missing which makes you hope your driver can manoeuvre this tedious challenge. I have seen a poor cow who didn't manage to make it over the bridge and had her leg between two trunks. Fortunately, the caretakers who were moving the cow were successful with the help of some passers-by to raise the animal from her predicament. It easier to show bridges in a picture than deep ruts in the road but I hope you can get the picture.

September

When Summer's silent song is done
And Autumn air has now begun,
Rustic red leaves
Drop from the tall trees.
Bashful brown leaves
fluttering, flickering free onto the grass so grubby green to be forgotten

where the leaves lie low and become rotten.
The tall trees try to hold on, but time ticks,
and the tiresome trees become sticks
silently sleeping until Spring has sprung and Autumn arrives and comes around again.
When Winter is welcomed with wind and rain,
it won't be long until Spring has sprung again.
